Goodbye

Spoken

i forgive all the lies, all the heartache you left me, all the times that i cried, all the joy you took from me.
we were side by side for so long,
somehow we lost our way, when will we meet again?
i'm praying for someday,
i remember walking beside you,
i remember how you sang,
of your fathers love forever, am i to blame?
did i lead you wrong?
did i lead you astray?
was i wrong?
am i to blame?
goodbye.
