Hop Along, Queen Ansleis

Moving as an unknown too forgiving
No one left to bother when I rebuild it
    There is nothing in between
    Born unraveled at the seams
    Lost where others seem to be
The first horizon wakes with me underneath
    I've seen all directions, it seems uncertain
Another world, in another world the past unspoken
    There is nothing in between
    Born unraveled at the seams
    Lost where others seem to be
The first horizon wakes with me underneath

As quick as the hope I was living on
As quick as the hope I was living on
    It's gone, gone, gone, gone
As quick as the hope I was living on
As quick as the hope I was living on
    It's gone, gone, gone, gone
As quick as the hope I was living on
As quick as the hope I was living on
    There is nothing in between
    Born unraveled at the seams
    Lost where others seem to be
The first horizon wakes with me underneath
