Bucketful Of Hate

Accept

You've got the smile of Judas on your lips...
You're following your script,
Trying to hide your anger
I see a cheap versade upon your face... to cover your distaste
It can't confine your angerExtend your olive branch, but its all full of thorns
You're talking peace, but in your eyes
Is a bucket full of hate... a bucket full of hate
Bucket full of hate... (hate)You're coming under false pretense,
You're trying to make amends... It's a counterfeit production
Yeah this performance is just a sham... it's nothing but a scam
A bogus reconstructionExtend your olive branch, its just a masquerade
Your talkin' peace and love,
You try to camouflage your animosity
You're getting crushed beneath the weight...Of a bucket full of hate... (bucket full of hate)
A bucket full of hate... (bucket full of hate)
Bucket full of hate... hate!
