

Bury Tomorrow

This is where the industry falls
 Blow it up, Blow it up, Blow it up
 Tear it down, Tear it down, Tear it down
 It's time to RIP apart the walls around your fortress
 This isn't bitterness, this is our legacy
 You could never be a part of anything real you lie to sell and teach to steal For all those whose only aim
 Is destruction in search of selfish gain
 I know that you will never learn
 Fuck you for thinking I've been burned
 We are the broken
 But the fearless ones
 You are nothing, you are worthless
 Don't act like you've earned this
 We will expose and let the truth be known 301!
 Tell me where you came from
 We are sick to death of hearing it 301!
 Tell me where you came from
 We are sick to death of hearing it For all those whose only aim
 Is destruction in search of selfish gain
 I know that you will never learn
 Fuck you for thinking I've been burned
 We are the broken
 But the fearless ones
 Tell me where you've been and what you've done
 And how you're better then everyone
 Now you're perfect 'just because'
 But to most you're a worthless cunt
 No one fucking asked you, no one truly cares
 Behind my back is your safest bet
 Save us all your worthless threats
 No one fucking asked you did I say I care?
 I know you're not the only judge
 301
 Tell me where you came from I know that you will never learn
 Fuck you for thinking I've been burned
 We are the broken
 But the fearless ones I know that you will never learn

Fuck you for thinking I've been burned
We are the broken
But the fearless ones
