

Julia

Limbeck

Some days I'm on the 8,
But sometimes I'm on the 22,
In rush hour traffic.
I never thought it'd fall apart,
I hate sitting on the 22,
I got a shrink that lives in Second Street.

Julia is so smart,
I'm annually reminded,
Yeah Julia is so smart,
She used to be a goth kid.

Last week was like a day,
Time turned fragile when I turned 22,
This whole season's been a working weekend.
That's it so far,
I heard JCR's moving up north,
A few years ago she came from grass valley.

Julia is so smart,
I'm annually reminded,
Yeah Julia is so smart,
She used to be a goth kid.

When everyone met,
Everything is different,
We all got rides,
Cause none had their licence,
We all got rides,
Now she's the only one on time.

hen everyone is young,
Everything is different,
We were on time,
And showed up on the fight,
We all got rides, We all got rides.

Julia is so smart,
I'm annually reminded,
Yeah Julia is so smart,

She used to be a goth kid,
She used to be a goth kid (used ot be a goth kid),
Yeah Julia (x3)
Julia you're so smart.

Lyrics powered by lyrics.tancode.com written by Carrie, Patrick / Entsminger, Justin / Maclean, Robert / Stephens, Matthew Lyrics Â© EMI Music Publishing

Lyrics provided by
<https://damnyrics.com/>