It's Alright, Ma (i'm Only Bleeding)

Bob Dylan

Darkness at the break of noon

Shadows even the silver spoon

The handmade blade, the child's balloon

Eclipses both the sun and moon

To understand you know too soon

There is no sense in tryingPointed threats, they bluff with scorn

Suicide remarks are torn

From the fools gold mouthpiece

The hollow horn plays

Wasted words proved to warn

That he not busy being born is busy dying Temptation's page flies out the door

You follow, find yourself at war

Watch waterfalls of pity roar

Feel to moan but unlike before

You discover that you'd just be

One more person cryingSo don't fear if you hear

A foreign sound in your ear

It's alright, Ma, I'm only sighingSome warn victory, some downfall

Private reasons great or small

Can be seen in the eyes of those that call

To make all that should be killed to crawl

While others say don't hate nothing at all

Except hatredDisillusioned words are like a bullet's bark

As human gods aim for their mark

Make everything from toy guns that spark

To flesh-colored Christs that glow in the dark

Easy to see without looking too far

That not much is really sacredWhile preachers preach of the evil fates

Teachers teach that knowledge waits

Can lead to the hundred-dollar plates

Goodness hides behind its gates

But even the President of the United States

Sometimes must have to stand nakedThough the rules of the road have been lodged

It's people's games, you got to dodge

But it's alright, Ma, I can make itAdvertising signs that con

You into thinking you're the one

That can do what's never been done

That can win what's never been won

Meantime life outside goes on

All around youYou loose yourself, you reappear

You suddenly find you got nothing to fear

Alone you stand with nobody near

When a trembling distant voice, unclear

Startles your sleeping ears to hear

Someone thinks they really found youA question in your nerves is lit

Yet you know there is no answer fit to satisfy

Insure you not to quit

To keep it in your mind and not forget

That it is not he or she or them or it

That you belong to Although the masters make the rules

For the wise men and the fools

I got nothing, Ma to live up toOld lady judges watch people in pairs

Limited in sex, they dare

To push fake morals, insult and stare

Money doesn't talk, it swears

Obscenity, who really cares

Propaganda, all is phonyWhile them that defend what they cannot see

With a killer's pride, security

It blows the minds most bitterly

For them that think death's honesty

Won't fall upon them naturally

Life sometimes must get lonelyMy eyes collide head-on with stuffed graveyards

False Gods, I scuff

At pettiness which plays so rough

Walk upside-down inside handcuffs

Kick my legs to crash it off

Say alright, I've had enough

What else can you show me ?And if my thought-dreams could be seen

They'd probably put my head in a guillotine

But it's alright, Ma, it's life and life only
