Pendulum

I'm a sweet, little love maker
Finding time, to make my words better (I)Lately I
Not so present now
Not in love
For your constant funI've got time, but you're tired of waiting
You only want me in other spaces
Come fill your gaps with people
I know no oneSo lonely trying to be yours
When you're looking for so much moreYou forgot
How we fell in love
I'm your sweet
Little love makerYou're younger than I am broken
I dance feelings like that sparkle
Summer conversations, not enoughSo lonely trying to be yours
What a forsaken cause
So lonely trying to be yours
When you're looking for so much more(So lonely trying)
How does it feel to have me thinking about you?
Wishing the words were enough to consume you
So lonely trying to be yours
How does it feel to have me thinking about you?So lonely trying to be yours
What a forsaken cause
So lonely trying to be yours
When you're looking for so much more
