

Empty Hearted

Designer Drugs & Alvin Risk

Baby I don't know what else to say
And maybe I should say I'm sorry
I am, for all the things I did today
That made you feel so empty hearted
You asked me once or twice to stay
I never thought I'd stand the day
It's been a hard two years today
I can't believe that they So empty hearted So empty hearted Baby I don't know what else to say
And maybe I should say I'm sorry
I am, for all the things I did today
That made you feel so empty hearted
You asked me once or twice to stay
I never thought I'd stand the day
It's been a hard two years today
I can't believe that they So empty hearted So empty hearted
