Just Getting Started

Day26

~~(Brian)~~
Hey! ladies and gentlemen!
Welcome to the greatest show on earth! ha
From the TV screen, to ya CD decks, to ya ipods, ya mp3
We the best, number one!
Que, will, rob, mike, Brian day26

(Robert):
Hey my pockets so deep
The money on the bed and nobody sleep
So I'm off to the telly, riding through the streets
Just the way a playa roll with some j's on his feet
I got a lot of fits and I'm looking really fly
Got a little roman on my wrist to hear the time
Got a lotta lotta ladies up in my ride
With my stunna shades on so you can't see my eyes

(Bridge):
We winnin, I push it very hard
We winnin, I climb a lot of mountains
We winnin, I ran a million yards
We winnin, but man who's counting
We winnin, it ain't about to slow down
We winnin, you're gonna have to catch me
We winnin, and it's about to go down
We taking over R&B like it's the next thing

(chorus)
We just getting started, started
We just getting started, started
We just getting started, started
We just getting started, started
We just getting started, started
We just getting started, started
We just getting started, started
We just getting started, started

(Will):
Posted on the balcony, dimes in the grotto
Looks like your boy got lucky with the lotto

So I been playing king me right into the model
After that I'm gone in the wind full throttle
Money is my thing, fly is how I roll
If you got beef, we can take it like Chicago
That's wherever I go, it's gonna be top flow
Bottle after bottle, holla if you don't know

(Bridge)
(chorus)x2

(Robert talking):
So I hope y'all ready
We was born ready
This time around, it's going down so strong
It's not a game, it's the beginning
