

Lovergirl

Teena Marie

Sugar pop
Funky pops Coffee, tea or me, baby, touch ole
My opening line might be a bit pass
But don't think that I don't know what I'm feeling for you
'Cause I got a vibe on you the first time that I saw you, saw you I need your love and I won't bring no pain gain
A little birdie told me that you feel the same game
I'm for the real and for you, I'm true blue
Let's make a deal, sugar, all I want to do is be your one and only lover I just want to be your lover girl
I just want to rock your world
Hey, hey, hey Hook, line and sinker baby, that's how you caught me
My second verse might be a bit old hat
But don't think that I don't know what it's doing to me
'Cause I got a vibe on you the first time you saw through me, through me I need your love and I won't bring no pain gain
A little birdie told me that you feel the same game
I'm for the real and for you, I'm true blue
Let's make a deal, sugar, all I want to do is be your one and only lover I just want to be your lover girl
I just want to rock your world
Hey, hey, hey I just want to be your lover girl
I just want to rock your world
Hey, hey, hey Baby, let me groove you
Let me groove into your love
I just want to be your lover girl Let me prove it to you
Baby, let me rock your world
I just want to rock your world Baby, let me soothe you
Let me smooth into your love
I just want to be your lover girl Let me prove it to you
Baby, let me rock your world
I just want to rock your world Coffee, tea or me, baby, touche ole
My opening line might be a bit passe
But don't think that I don't know what I'm feeling for you
'Cause I got a vibe on you the first time that I saw you, whoa
