

Profane Believers

Heaven Shall Burn

Losing touch with reality
In your world of plenty it's also easy to preach love
Holier than thou, your order that shall rule
Yet, at the walls of your cathedrals
Poor sinners starve
Poor sinners starve to death
Poor sinners starve to deathUngodly wastefulness and petrified profanity materialized In golden temples
Within the walls of Babylon
Profane believers follow their fateful leadersThis world is up in arms
The time has come to bid farewell
A true belief will rule
Our true belief will ruleA pure commitment will blow away an unreal constitutionUngodly wastefulness and petrified profanity materialized In golden temples
Within the walls of Babylon
Profane believers follow their fateful leadersUngodly wastefulness and petrified profanity materialized In golden temples
Within the walls of Babylon
Profane believers follow their fateful leaders
