Chicosci

I've a plan if you are willing
We'll take on all the ends of the world
A toast, we're celebrating
No one's around we're on our ownThis sacred wine, it's a toast to all our crimes
Brothers, I'm yours
(Let's go!)No one could ever shake this
The soul we share, the things we've done
Yeah, we we're only dreaming
We breathe together, hunt as oneThese blessed times, just always keep them in mind
Brothers, I'm yours
I'll raise my glass to you
I'll raise my glass to youThe lost boys are laughing, the past is fading
The lost boys are laughing, your choir's fallingSilence them forever
These falling knives
It's all for the takingI've a plan if you are willing
We'll take on all the ends of the world
This sacred wine, it's a toast to all our crimes
Brothers, I'm yoursI'll raise my glass to you
I'll raise my glass to you
I'll raise my glass to you
I'll raise my glass to you
I'll raise my glass to you (The lost boys are laughing, the past is fading)
I'll raise my glass to you (The lost boys are laughing, your choir's falling)
I'll raise my glass to you (The lost boys are laughing, the past is fading)
I'll raise my glass to you
