

Lady Moonlight

All About Eve

What am I to do in my darkest hour?
Lamplight to light my despair
She has the stars in her eyes
The mind in her hair, my sanctuary silent and silver
Shine bright, Lady Moonlight
Should I cry, should I weep?
My secrets she'll keep them in her temple
'Neath her veil she is Isis, she is Guinevere
Sister to the sea
Queen of the night with the answer
And my heart disbelieves
The myth surrounding Eve
She couldn't know what she was doing
Shine bright, Lady Moonlight
