I'll Protect You

Ayenn

Verse 1

I saw the tears in her eyes which reeked of desperation I told her everything would be alright
no need for isolation she knew well that I would help her cause my heart went out to her I said it once, I'll say it again with me, there's no need to worry I will protect her and help her to survive

Chorus

There's no need to cry
there's no need to fear
I will be the protector that you need
so don't cry,
I'll be by your side
I'll Protect You

Verse 2

Her body was trembling when she came to me
why should she endure the pain and suffering he puts her through each and every day
without reservation
so I held her in my arms and said don't cry

Chorus

There's no need to cry
so don't cry,
I'll be by your side
I'll Protect You
