Soak

Speakeasy

paint a picture of a brand new sunny day put it in your pocket so that picture doesn't fade your eyes are how you see it whats right in front
got to walk around
for the whole view

be alright
hold your pistols and run
face up to the sky
soak in the sun

paint a picture of a brand new point of view some times green apples turn out to be blue it all in how you see it somebody gonna knock you down aint no body gonna turn you 'round you want to know what i beleive thats just you and

me alright
hold your pistols and run
soak in the sun

soak in the sun
