Even A Hero

Christy Carlson Romano

You knew you had it comming, knew you had it comming
Dont run away
And know you gotta listen, listen cuz your messing up in every way
Cuz when the lights go down and your all alone again
Thats when your looking for someone else to blame
Cuz you knew you had it comming, knew you had it comming, knew you had it comming
Everybody's got that pain
Nobody's sleeping on a bed of roses
And when i think i'm made of steel
Thats about the time i start to notice
I'm going down on zero
But even a hero has a bad day
Has a bad day
Take another shot pull yourself together like you've always done
When your looking in the mirror thats when you'll get nearer to a truth become Cuz when the night creeps down and your dreams have all gone south
Thats when you'll realize that you should've shut your mouth
Cuz you knew you had it comming, knew you had it comming, knew you had it comming
Everybody's got that pain
Nobody's sleeping on a bed of roses
And when i think i'm made of steel

Thats about the time i start to notice
I'm going down on zero
But even a hero has a bad day
So, dont keep your head in the clouds
Dont keep it going around in circles
Is it really worth it
Cuz when i fall on the ground
I wanna feel my heart pound til something that is real
Cuz nothings ever what it seems
Its always somewhere in between Everybody's got that pain (yea yea)
Nobody's sleeping on a bed of roses (Everybody's got that pain)
And when i think i'm made of steel
Thats about the time i start to notice (Everybody, Everybody)
I'm going down on zero
But even a hero
Everybody's, Everybody's, Everybody's got that pain (even a hero)

Everybody's, Everybody's, Everybody's got that pain (even a hero)
Everybody's, Everybody's, Everybody's got that pain (even a hero)
Everybody's, Everybody's, Everybody's got that pain (even a hero)
Everybody's, Everybody
