

Just Be

Walt Wilkins

Let's get old together
Let's be unhappy forever
Cause there's no one else in this world
 That I'd rather be unhappy with
 Let's be exposed and unprotected
Let's see one another when we're weak
 Let's go our separate ways in the night
 Like two moths
But know that you're flying home to meI was born thinking
 It would all be dreamy
 But I know that I wouldn't be happy
 That way
You wear me out with frustration and
 Heartache and anger
But we wait for the wave to wash it awayDon't say nothing
 Just sit next to me
 Don't say nothing
 Shhh
Just be, just be, just beLet's let go together
 Let us unfold one another
 And watch all the little things that
 Once drew me to you
Eventually get on my nervesI wear you out with frustration
 And heartache and anger
But we wait for the wave just to wash it awayDon't say nothing
 Just sit next to me
 Don't say nothing
 Shhh
Just be, just be, just beWhen you're sick of the every day
 When you're tired of my voice
 When you tell me
 You'll walk out that door
That's when I know that you'll stayDon't say nothing
 Just sit next to me
 Don't say nothing
 Just be, just be
 Just don't say nothing
 Just sit next to me
 Say nothing

Just be, just be, just be
Don't say nothing
Shhhhh
