Paranoia

A Day to Remember

[Verse One:]
Expect the worst of everyone I meet
Count the clock cause I can't Fucking sleep
Soon you'll pay like a heart attack
Call my friends I might not make it back[Pre Chorus:]
The doctor says I'm heading for destruction
Something's gotta give ...[Chorus:]
I'm like a time bomb ticking in your head
Paranoia clouding your judgment
And no matter what you do about it, about it, about it
I'm still in your head![Verse Two:]
I stop and stare scared of the unknown!
Unknown numbers been blowing up my phone
I'm hearing footsteps outside of my house
I'm afraid someones trying to take me out[Pre Chorus Alt One:]
The doctor says i'm heading for destruction
Can I Fucking live?[Chorus: 2X]
I'm like a time bomb ticking in your head
Paranoia clouding your judgment
And no matter what you do about it, about it, about itI'm still in your head[Breakdown:]
(I'm still in your head)
(I'm still in your head)
I am your breaking point![Bridge:]
You can't run, you can't hide
I'll be there when you close your eyes at night
I'm always watching you![Pre Chorus Alt Two:]
The doctor says i'm heading for destruction
My time is wearing thin ...[Chorus: 2X]
I'm like a time bomb ticking in your head
Paranoia clouding your judgment, (judgement)
And no matter what you do about it, about it, about itI'm still in your head
