

Bliss

Aiden

I saw the truth, Mom's a whore
I saw the mark as she passed through the door
I saw the truth, you're a whore
Distill the scene and don't lie to me no more
So what's killing you, is it the demon inside?
My God, you're turning blue, a suffocating lie
You're all I've got, you're all I've got
And to wake up, she fucks the pain
And wears makeup to hide the shame
Her sedative lies low
And self esteem won't grow tonight, she'll miss
And all she knows and all she knows
All she knows is bliss
So what's killing you, is it the demon inside?
My God, you're turning blue, a suffocating lie
You're all I've got, you're all I've got, you're all I've got
The black eyes filled with the love
She wrote, 'I'm not insane, I'm sorry, I have to go'
And these walls are painted red
She put a bullet in her head
Goodbye, goodbye, goodbye, goodbye
That's all she said
So what's killing you, is it the demon inside?
My God, you're turning blue, a suffocating lie
You're all I've got, you're all I've got
You're all I've got, you're all I've got
You're all I've got, you're all I've got, got
