Crash

Papa Roach

I refuse to be a victim
I refuse to be a slave
I keep on burning my bridges
I keep on  up everythingRunning from desperation
And God knows where Ive been
I dont know where Im headed
But Im going too fast
I think Im going to crashIm going to crash
Im going to crash
To crashIt is time for annihilation
It's time to be a criminal
No time for hesitation
Time to be an animalLooking at my reflection
I dont like what I see
So I ask myself a question
Do I got what I want?
Do I got what I need?I'm not afraid of the future
Im spinning right out of control
Dont know where Im headed
But I'm going too fast
I think Im going to crashIm going to crash
Im going to crash
To crash, yeah!It is time for annihilation
It's time to be a criminal
No time for hesitation
Time to be an animalIt is time for annihilation
It's time to be a criminal
No time for hesitation
Time to be an animalI refuse to be a victim
I dont wanna fall again
I know where Im headed
God knows where Ive beenIm going to crash
Im going to crash
Im going to crash
Im going to crashIm going to crash
Im going to crash
Im going to crash
Im going to crashIt is time for annihilation
It's time to be a criminal

No time for hesitation
Time to be an animalIt is time for annihilation
It's time to be a criminal
No time for hesitation
Time to be an animalLive, love, life
Live, love, fight
Live, love, life
