

My World

Secret Affair

I can feel that taste for life slipping away
And striking the lost chord, I find nothing new to say
Someone told me I'm all dressed with nowhere to go
I still have that sinking feeling, my head hung low

But this is my world today
My world you're living in every day
And this is my world today
And I couldn't have it any other way
In my world

Well the mind has its reasons for talking aloud
So when people turn and stare, I feel so proud
The things they say won't come as any surprise
In an instant they become distant cries

But this is my world today
My world you're living in every day
This is my world today
And I couldn't have it any other way
In my world

(My world, my world, my world, my world today)
Forever and ever, forever and ever, forever and ever

This is my world today
My world you're living in every day
You are my world today
And I couldn't have it any other way
You're my world

(My world, your world, my world, your world today)
In my world, in my world, in my world, in my world
(My world, your world, my world, your world today)
In my world
