Pale Aura

Periphery

Walking through water
As it dampens our feet
Watch as we call it self defeatThe trees are calling to the men who mask
They know his true identity
IDENTITY!!!!!!!Come and stare
Come and stare at her love through these eyes
From a mountain so high
Is it possible, we've forsaken our motherReturn to nowhere
And nature will know my name
This is what it takes to feel at home
In her soul that's beyond light is where I lay (I lay)
Until the dusk of meYes he squanders the life he leads
Still the end will call
Birth of anti-bionic seed
Will he grow with fault?
GROW WITH FAULT!!!!!!!!!Come and stare
Come and stare at her love through these eyes
From a mountain so high
Is it possible, we've forsaken our motherReturn to nowhere
And nature will know my name
This is what it takes to feel at home
In her soul that's beyond light is where I lay (I lay)
Until the DUSK!!!!!!!!!
OF!!!!!!!!!
ME!!!!!!!!!!!When it snows,
Do you feel the love?
Wind it blows,
Through our bodies
Return to what we know.....When it snows,
Do you feel the love?
Wind it blows,
Through our bodies
Return to what we know.....When it snows,
Do you feel the love?
Wind it blows,
Through our bodies
Return to what we know.....When it snows,
Do you feel the love?

Wind it blows,
Through our bodies
Return to what we know.....
