

World War Z

Lakefield

Why you looking past my eyes?
Why you looking past my eyes?
Paris is calling and Beijing is falling
London slips away

Why you falling for these lies?
Why you falling for these lies?
New York is breaking and my heart is aching
Darkness fades to grey

Well, donâ€™t worry darling, weâ€™re gonna find a way to survive
Weâ€™re gonna find a way to make it out of this town alive

We can avert this disaster
If we can put out the fire
We can avert this disaster
We can make it out of this town alive

We could live in the forest â€“ learn to hunt and to forage
We could live so peacefully in a cabin up north where no one would ever hear

We can avert this disaster
If we can put out the fire
We can avert this disaster
We can make it out of this town alive

Why are you looking past my eyes?
Paris is calling and Beijing is falling
Why are you looking past my eyes?
New York is breaking and my heart is aching
Why are you looking past my eyes?
Paris is calling and Beijing is falling
Why are you looking past my eyes?
London slips away
