

The Silent Sky

Hagood Hardy

Silent Sky

Music by Hagood Hardy

Lyrics by Timothy Kong

A flower blooms, enjoys the sun, it then will fade
No fear, tear or regret, for life has been fully enjoyed and fully lived
Divine energy is transformed, it cannot be created or destroyed
Somehow new life will emerge and take place

Colourful sunset and gorgeous evening sky, a tranquil and beautiful scene
Radiating with sweet memories, spiritual fulfilment and wisdom
Instantly and senselessly night will hastily over shadow
Peacefully at yonder horizon a new dawn will begin
