

Avalanche

HANA

Crouching in the girls room
Trying to collect my mood
No one knowing my truth
Always be the one to
Say yes
Say yes
Never not the nice one
Mustn't be a bitch, hun
Sit and be pretty
Learn to live to love to always
Nod yes
Nod yes
You say you wanted me to hold my own
But now I know
I was under your control
All the ways that I could haunt you now
Your grip is slipping fast
Now baby i'm an avalanche
Take another deep breath
Pride is all i've got left
Get my shit together
Know that I can be the one to
Say no
Say no
Pour a cup of gold now
I'm holding the chains pal
I'll sit and be pretty
While I learn to be the one to
Yell no
Scream no
You say you wanted me to hold my own
But now I know
I was under your control
All the ways that I could haunt you now
Your grip is slipping fast
Now baby i'm an avalanche
You'll freeze
You'll be gone
Finally

In the snow
I said no
You say you wanted me to hold my own
But now I know
I was under your control
All the ways that I could haunt you now
Your grip is slipping fast
