Lemonade

Phil Vassar

Looks like you had one of those God awful days Like someone dropped some serious rain on your parade hey hey you looked around and you were all alone you had to face the devil on your own you know its okay to cry you don't have to be so brave hey hey just breathe deep lay it all on me[CHORUS:] Sometimes you're the king, sometimes you rule Sometimes you're the joker man or playing the fool sometimes you fit in sometimes you're just out of place And sometimes you fall, fall all the way down sometimes your chute opens before you hit the ground but you've gotta play the game so why play it safe life's about changes lemons into lemonadewell life is full of bad mistakes you've got your tough breaks and your heartaches yeah but you'll appreciate the sunny days hey hey with love there's a learning curve you gotta bend and swerve you gotta keep your nerve and above all else for heavens sake hey hey you've gotta laugh sometimes that's all you have[REPEAT CHORUS]Hey, hey, hey, hey, heyyyy, heyyyy Its gonna be ok[REPEAT CHORUS]Life's about changes
