Everything

Sita

(Alexis Strum/Paul Westcott/Ian Bouman)I know these word won't save you, but I can only try
I know you died a thousand times
I didn't come to break you, or to watch you bleed
I didn't come to twist the knifeI apologize...
Every day of my life I got out of my mind thinking how I was wrong and you won't be mine.Take another look could I change your mind?
Let me tell you I'd doe anything to be your everything
Even though you're hurt give it one more try
Let me tell you I'd do anything to be your everythingYou say I left you nothing but a bitter taste
You say I locked you in a cage
Say I pushed you over, say I made you crawl Across the line between love and hateI apologize... Every day of my life I go out of my mind thinking how I was wrong and you won't be mine.Take another look could I change your mind?
Let me tell you I'd doe anything to be your everything
Even though you're hurt give it one more try
Let me tell you I'd do anything to be your everything
