

The Blueprint

Boogie Down Productions

The BlueprintDusty fussy yet so crystal clear
The non-commercial set is now here
Brought to you by the will of positive people
K R S plus One equalsSlammin' lyrics and beats unquestionable
The professional while I guess that you'll
Grab the album that rocks the most on the market
Strong hearted with a targetAnd the target is hit
I shot the lyric then reload the clip
Another shell hits the ground
Along with the shell, my opponents weak crownThe title comes after, what a disaster
Listen to the laughter, your heart, I capture
'Cause every lecture has texture
If you're wack, I say, Next, sirWho's next? 'Cause I've got no time for weakness
Only the teacher speaks this
Dialect, which gains 'nuff respect
Which money can't buy you yetI don't care 'cause Boogie Down Productions has both
The most worldwide coast to coast
We didn't do it with the soft commercial sound
Try the ghetto 'cause I refuse to let goYou see you don't understand, I knew it
You got a copy, I read from the blueprintKeepin' it on track and never wack
Please step back if you speak the wack rap
'Cause I alone can dis your whole pack or posse
Stupid, sit there and watch meYou can't stop the original with a copy
Sloppy very sloppy, you slouch
Every time you bite, I yell ouch
Breakout, get lost, your throat is hoarse
You lost 'cause I'm dope of courseOne and two and three and fourBut that comes from years of practice
Anti-slackness, anti-wackness
Throw on the glasses and teach the masses
Very simple the question I ask isHow many MC's must get stomped
Before somebody says Kris has no calm
Thousands, both here and overseas
If you're soft, I say please leaveHere's the door here's your hat coat and mitt
'Cause here we read The Blueprint
