Song For You

Fuel

It's all I want
It's all I needed now it's through
And it all comes back to you
The only one
The one I needed I abused
More color fore the bruise
And so I sing this song for you
There's nothing left for me to do
Goodbye dear one
Venus I'd thought you'd bless me too
So selfish to presume
And so I sing this song for you
And I hope that what it's true
Will find a way to you
I sing this song for you
Venus never showed the way

The stars would not be sold
Heaven stole the light of day
And we were never told
So dark the day
So dark the day
So dark the day
So much for life, for life, and love
And now it's done
The color always changes hue
From bright to black and blue
And so I sing this song for you
And I hope that what it's true
Will find a way to you
I sing this song for you
And so I sing this song for you
There's nothing left for me to do
