

Bonecrusher

Airborn

I feel the city breathe at night
Beneath the stars and meteor lights
And I've got nothing to loseDrink up, drink up
 Drink up the loneliness
 Drink up, drink up
Drink up the lonelinessThe streets outside, they burn with light
 But I am dead on the inside
I think these pills are to blameDrink up, drink up
 Drink up the loneliness
 Drink up, drink up
Drink up the lonelinessAnd I got romantic ideas
 But they're not meant for you
 And my best feeling, black roses
To show that our love is throughI hope the fire licks my lips
 And pulls me close against the wrist
This town will go down in flamesDrink up, drink up
 Drink up the loneliness
 Drink up, drink up
Drink up the lonelinessAnd I've got romantic ideas
 But they're not meant for you
 And my best feeling, black roses
To show that our love is throughLike a broken mirror, they're pieces of me
 Like a broken mirror, they're pieces of me
 They're pieces of me
They're pieces of me nowDrink up, drink up
 Drink up the loneliness
 Drink up, drink up
 Drink up the my lonely
 Drink up the my lonelyDrink up
 Drink up the loneliness
