All I Know

Karnivool

This is my sense of reality
This is proof of my coming of age
This is truth in captivity
This is Lucidi Ophthalmology
I, I'm a soul taker
I'm a cruel, witted mind
This is my sense of reality
This is proof of my coming of age
I'm a soul taker
I'm a cruel witted mind
Are you with me?
Are you of like mind?
Are you with me?
Are you of like mind?
Waking, falling, free of gravity
We just severed these umbilical wires
This is more than just affinity
We're moving further
Through an endless desire
I'm a soul taker
I'm a cruel witted mind
Come again, I feel a breakdown
Let's go higher

This is the sound of your
Reason to wake
Have we forgotten now?
Can we relate?
It's backwards, it makes no sense
So real that we can't pretend
It's backwards, it makes no sense
It's harder to just pretend
Say it once more, say it again
Hey, is this the end of all I know
Say it once more, say it again
Hey, is this the end of all I know
Are you with me?
(Can we relate?)
Are you of like mind?

Are you with me?
(Can we relate?)
Are you of like mind?
Say it once more, say it again
Hey, is this the end of all I know
Say it once more, say it again
Hey, is this the end of all I know
