I Don't Love You Anymore

Rascals

"I can feel I'm breaking through,
Rushing toward the core view.
Destroying your anatomy
You bring out the worst in me
oh oh oh

Can't you tell that I'm afraid,
I don't want to live this way
Destroying your anatomy
You bring out the worst in me
oh oh oh

If this is love then fuck it, I don't want it anymore
If this is love then fuck it, I was better off before
If this is love then fuck it, Lose the battle win the war.
I don't love you anymore.

Ripping your own chest apart
Won't stop till you're beating heart
Bit off more than you could chew
I learned everything from you, oh.
oh oh oh oh.

I don't think you realize you used to buy your alibis
bit off more than you could chew
I learned everything from you
oh oh oh

If this is love then fuck it, I don't want it anymore
If this is love then fuck it, I was better off before
If this is love then fuck it, lose the battle win the war.
I don't love you anymore.

You hate my friends
It never ends
I lift you up
You put me down into my grave
you've got the dirt

you smiled and waved

If this is love then fuck it, I don't want it anymore
If this is love then fuck it, I was better off before
If this is love then fuck it, lose the battle win the war.
I don't love you anymore.

If this is love then fuck it, I don't want it anymore
If this is love then fuck it, I was better off before
If this is love then fuck it, lose the battle win the war.
I don't love you anymore.

(If this is love then fuck it, I don't want it anymore)
I don't love you anymore
(If this is love then fuck it, I was better off before)
I don't love you anymore
(If this love then fuck it)
Lose the battle win the war
I don't love you anymore!"
