Blind As I Am

Indiana

I, I somehow find
I find myself one step behind the tide
I beg you please, I beg you pleaseAnd I, despise this conscience of mine
That will not let me lie
I beg you please, I beg you pleaseIt's like rubbing gold off my hands
Trying to see for what it is, I don't think I can
It's like rubbing gold off my hands
I let it go, I watched it fall, blind as I am
Blind, blind as I am
I see the truth and I have been a fool
I beg you please, I beg you pleaseAs I, I watch you go
I scream for you from deep within my soul
I beg you please, I beg you pleaseIt's like rubbing gold off my hands
Trying to see for what it is, I don't think I can
It's like rubbing gold off my hands
I let it go, I watched it fall, blind as I amI tried to find myself
But all I found was an empty shell
So I tried to lose myself
But I was blind by the beauty of your heart, your heart
It's like rubbing gold off my hands
Trying to see for what it is, I don't think I can
It's like rubbing gold off my hands
I let it go, I watched it fall, blind as I am
