Good Fight

American Aquarium

I give my all, my everything
Anything you want I've tried to be I tried, God knows I tried
Or am I stuck somewhere between who I am and who I hope to be?
Am I fighting the good fight?
Keep pressing on
Fight the good fight, fight what you know is wrong
Keep pressing on
Fight the good fight, fight what you know is wrong
I've come so far to fall too fast
Eyes forward I can't look back I tried, God knows I tried
I shift my eyes through the sky, in the distance see the horizon line
She waits for me fighting the good fight
Keep pressing on
Fight the good fight, fight what you know is wrong
Keep pressing on
Fight the good fight, fight
I give my all, my everything
Anything you want I strive to be
Am I stuck somewhere between who I am and who I hope to be?
Fighting, I'm fighting
Fighting the good fight
Am I stuck somewhere in between who I am and who I hope to be?
Keep pressing on
Fight the good fight, fight what you know is wrong
Keep pressing on
Fight the good fight, fight what you know is wrong
Remember that sometimes I fall in between
The nights blue moon and the shadows it keeps
Fight on, fight the good fight
And I'll keep fighting and I'll keep fighting
Fight on, keep fighting the good fight
Fight on, fight on
Fight on, keep fighting the good fight
Fight on, fight on
