Rest Your Soul

MFAMOUS

Oh, oh, ohhI never thought you'd go that far
I never even saw a scar
You lay down all around
Candles all around youI never would have called you cold
I never would have told you go
You shut out all the lightAnd had the nerve to try
You surprised me, bay-by
You surprised me, bay-bay, baby, babyCome down, come down slow
You know that all is lost
Soon you'll rest your soul
Soon you'll rest yourRemember when you were young
You never thought it'd come
To a time when I'd send
My child to kill a childI can't believe that even one
Is worth the greed of some
How on earth can you send
A child to kill a childYou'll realize when it's too late
You'll realize whenYou come back, come back home
And tell them all is lostSoon you'll rest your soul
Soon you'll rest your soulOhh, oh, oh, oh
Ohh, oh, oh, ohSo come back, come back home
And tell them all is lostSoon you'll rest your soul
Soon you'll rest your soul
