Less Of

Unloco

Less of I but more than you
I'm less of nothing again
I face my life and what I do
I feel I'm the last to be savedWhat would you say That everything here must soon change
But you think the machine is a man in the back of my head
All the lies, the lies can be the truth if you just want them to be
But you just push me down
You just pushGET BACK
Doesn't matter what I say
or how I feel
You're out of line
So just get back, get backLet, You just can't
Let, You just can't
Let, You just can't
LET IT GO, LET IT GOAnd if I see his face
And I do nothing of this Would you think less of me
If I didn't raise my fist
All the cracks in the floor
Make this life a game
For you to push me down
For you toGET BACK
Doesn't matter what I say
or how I feel
You're out of line
So just get back, get backLet, You just can't
Let, You just can't
Let, You just can't
LET IT GO, LET IT GOTry to understand
LET IT GO
Doesn't matter what I say or how I feelYou're out of line
So just get back, get back
LET IT GO
Doesn't matter what I say

or how I feel
You're out of line
So just get back, get backLet, You just can't
Let, You just can't
Let, You just can't
LET IT GO, LET IT GO
