

Birds & Planes

Dinosaur Pile-Up

This morning my best friend came home and told me everything has changed he's not the same and nothing is for sure you know except the day you go to hell and the turning hands of time Maybe I should ask the sky to
suck me up one day I'd make friends with the
birds and planes
I'd be no more alone
up there
than I am down here I miss the days when I could sleep forever meant that I did not know any better nothing is for sure you know
except the day you go to hell
and the turning hands of time Maybe I should
ask the sky to
birds and planes
I'd be no more alone
up there
than I am down here
