I Love Girls (feat. Tyga)

Pleasure P

this goes down to my pretty, pretty girls
pretty pretty girls, pretty pretty girls, girls i like a thick girl with a big booty small waist in the face she a cutie i like skinny girls with them A cups long legs with them little bitty buts yeah i like a big girl that can cook like my mama she know the way to a man's heart is through his stomach i like a innocent girl i can turn out i like a freak chick already turned out i like them shy and nerdy, a geek in class college girls straight a's in the classes i like a flirty personality, a little tease, she always making passes i like them 30 or even older cause there ain't nothing like cougar love pretty lady i'm a fool for ya i wrote a song about who i love
i love girls, i love girls, i love girls so much i think i'm les-be honest, les-be honest, let's be honest, just being honest, just being honest
i love girls, i love girls, i love girls so much i think i'm les-be honest, les-be honest,
let's be honest, just being honest, just being honest i like a rich chick, spoiled and paid i take a broke chick, that i can upgrade i dig a thuged out broad that can dress up quick to fight a nigga every time i mess up you ain't gotta be a model or a perfect 10 you give me a 7,8, or 9 even if you a 5, shawty bring a friend cause 2 5's make a dime every time i love them idependent when they get it on their own a daddy's girl who's still living at home even if she got a couple of kids, that's cool, long as your baby daddy know what it is i like them sexy, naughty, know how to party cause ain't nothing like groupie love little mama i'm a fool for ya
i wrote a song about who i love
let's be honest, just being honest, just being honest

i love girls, i love girls, i love girls so much i think i'm les-be honest, les-be honest,
let's be honest, just being honest, just being honest
this goes out to my pretty, pretty girls put your hands up if you a pretty, pretty girl There she go, oho oho, pretty, pretty girls all around the world, my pretty, pretty girls
this goes out to my pretty, pretty girls
go, oho oho, pretty, pretty girls all around the world, my pretty, pretty girls i wrote a song about who i love, love, i love girls, i love girls, i love girls so much i think i'm les-be honest, les-be honest,
let's be honest, just being honest, just being honest
i love girls, i love girls, i love girls so much i think i'm les-be honest, les-be honest,
let's be honest, just being honest, just being honest
i love girls, i love girls, i love girls so much i think i'm les-be honest, les-be honest,
let's be honest, just being honest, just being honest
i love girls, i love girls, i love girls so much i think i'm les-be honest, les-be honest, let's be honest, just being honest, just being honest.
