

Omen (feat. Sam Smith)

Disclosure

[Produced by: Disclosure][Verse 1]
I'm feeling something, something different
When you left, my picture changed
I was blinded, I'd not envisioned
The same face in a different frame[Pre-Chorus]
It's an omen, caught my baby crying
Saw the silver lining
It must be an omen
Needed you to show me, without you I am lonely[Chorus]
My mind would rule my heart
I didn't pay attention to the light in the dark
It left me torn apart
But now I see your tears as an omen[Refrain]
Oh-Oh-Oh-Oh
Oh-Oh-Oh
Omen[Verse 2]
You were waiting, I was vacant
You left before my eyes
Then it hit me, you're relocating
And I need you by my side[Pre-Chorus]
It's an omen, caught my baby crying
Saw the silver lining
It must be an omen
Needed you to show me, without you I am lonely[Chorus]
My mind would rule my heart
I didn't pay attention to the light in the dark
It left me torn apart
But now I see your tears as an omen
My mind would rule my heart
I didn't pay attention to the light in the dark
It left me torn apart
But now I see your tears as an omen[Outro]
Oh-Oh-Oh-Oh
Oh-Oh-Oh
