Quicker (Rack N Ruin Rework)

I Blame Coco

I am a waste and you shall be waiting here.
You are the place and you can place me anywhere.
We're on our way.
We're on our way away from here.

But if we don't stop now, instead of living in this old horse town.
I want it back in again.
Let it devour my skin, but we won't start now.

If we could only be quicker and be quick to be kind.
If we could only be faster, then we could outsmart time.
If we could only be quicker and be quick to be kind.
If we could only be faster, then we could outsmart time.

I am afraid, afraid of losing time.
You are the race and I'll be racing your mind.

But if we don't stop now, instead of living in this old horse town.
I want you back in again.
Let it devour my skin, but we won't start now.

If we could only be quicker and be quick to be kind.
If we could only be faster, then we could outsmart time.
If we could only be quicker and be quick to be kind.
If we could only be faster, then we could outsmart time.

If we could only be quicker and be quick to be kind.
If we could only be faster, then we could outsmart time.
If we could only be quicker and be quick to be kind.
If we could only be faster, then we could outsmart time.

So hold me as I hold you.
Hold me 'til I drown.
Well, you could be faster and fast becomes the sound.

If you could only be quicker and be quick to be kind.
If you could only be faster, then you could outsmart time.
If we could only be quicker and be quick to be kind.
If we could only be faster, then we could outsmart time.

So hold me as I hold you.
Hold me to the ground.
