

Butterfly Cry

Kerli

Did I hurt you?
Did I ever make you bleed inside?
Did I kill you? I didn't mean to make you hide yourself
Find you in you, beautiful
Do not grow the seeds of pain in you, goodbye Let the butterflies cry
Let them cry for you
You just dry your eyes
Because the world is wonderful Let the butterflies cry
Let them cry for you
You just dry your eyes
Because the world is wonderful
Oh, 'cause the world is wonderful I have been there
I used to believe there was no light
But I found out
A life is far too short to fight Lose yourself, let go your pain
Taste the air you breathe
And kiss the sky, goodbye Let the butterflies cry
Let them cry for you
You just dry your eyes
Because the world is wonderful Let the butterflies cry
Let them cry for you
You just dry your eyes
Because the world is wonderful
Oh, 'cause the world is wonderful Let the butterflies cry
Let them cry for you
Oh, you just dry your eyes
Because the world is wonderful Let the butterflies cry
Let them cry for you
You just dry your eyes
And 'cause the world is wonderful
Oh, 'cause the world is wonderful
And yeah, because the world is wonderful
