

Heavy Crown

Lovehammers

What keeps you hanging on
When the end is near
I see that look in your eyes
You have no fear
Where do you find the strength
How do you, carry on
Even heroes fall, on a road this long
There will come a day where you will settle down
Rest your head lay down your Heavy Crown

{Chorus}
So, its easier this way
Walk into the light
It will be OK,

There will come a day
We will reunite, I will make you proud by the way I live my life
So now its time for you to pass it down
Rest your head lay down your Heavy Crown

{chorus}
And you know
What you mean to me
Our love will never die
Your a part of me

All of this time I saw the truth in your eyes
Now is that time, time to let go

{Chorus}
