

Tears Are Only Rain (Re-Recorded)

Hank Thompson

TEARS ARE ONLY RAIN

(Johnny Hatchcock - Weldon Allard)

'54 Brazos Valley Music When your lover cries hold her close and whisper low

That tears are only rain to make love grow

Kiss her tenderly tell her that you love her so

For tears are only rain to make love grow

Anyone can plant a seed but everybody knows

It needs both sun and rain before it blooms into a rose

When your lover cries hold her close and whisper low

That tears are only rain to make love grow

(Tears are only rain to make love grow)

When your lover smiles let her set your heart aglow

But don't forsake her when she's feeling low

Hold her to your heart dry her eyes and let her know

That tears are only rain to make love grow

She may smile because she knows your love is deep and true

But when she sheds a tears it may be cause of you

When your lover cries tell her that you love her so

For tears are only rain to make love grow
