Cocteau Twins

My dreams are all basic and must be addressed
They're young girls dreams
True, some tote gun shoot and shoot a lot help them elect stars
But I was just rudeNothin' like scary hairs are normal, sing me the proof
Like the scary hairs are normal, sing me the proof
Delay proofA family fool, but it's you to lie constant and inside me
But when I'm set in my things
A calling stone, oh, I feel strong luck
When bound young meets the ground
When them and I'm empty headedSee and saw bounce me back to you, will you?
See and saw bounce me back to you, will you?
Will you?My dreams are all more basic and must be addressed
They're young girls dreams
See and saw bounce me back to you, will you?
See and saw bounce me back to you, will you?
Will you?See and saw bounce me back to you
See and saw bounce me back to you
See and saw bounce me back to you, will you?See and saw bounce me back to you
See and saw bounce me back to you
See and saw bounce me back to you, will you?
