

Fast Ride

Transmit Now

Right now, the diamonds that I'm standing on, have turned to stone.
Right not, everyone I'm counting on, is striking out.
So sit, I can tell you stories now. Don't let them in.
Here with, all these empty promises, I could fill a room with them.

It's like a nervous tick; they tell you that you're everything,
But they don't even know how to make you what they say
that you can be, you'll never be.
Don't follow them, just follow me.
And you'll be--

-- alright, sitting pretty in your fast ride.
Watching all the girls with stars in their eyes,
Passing you by,
Wishing they could be with you for just one night.
It's alright, sitting pretty in your fast ride.
Watching all the girls with stars in their eyes,
Passing you by, wishing.

Hands out, the stones are back to diamonds now. They all expect a piece due to them for all their trouble but, they won't collect.
Just sit, I can tell you stories now. Don't let them in.
Hands full, full of empty promises,
I'd fill a room with them.

It's like a nervous tick; they tell you that you're everything,
But they don't even know how to make you what they say
that you can be, you'll never be.
Don't follow them, just follow me.
And you'll be--

-- alright, sitting pretty in your fast ride.
Watching all the girls with stars in their eyes,
Passing you by,
Wishing they could be with you for just one night.
You are alright, sitting pretty in your fast ride.
Watching all the girls with stars in their eyes,
Passing you by, wishing.

You are alright, sitting pretty in your fast ride.

Watching all the girls with stars in their eyes,
Passing you by,
Wishing they could be with you for just one night.
Alright, you are alright.
Alright, You are alright, sitting pretty in your fast ride.
Watching all the girls with stars in their eyes,
Passing you by, wishing.
