

Lowdown

Wire

The time is too short but never too long
to reach ahead,
to project the image,
which will in time become a concrete dream.

Another cigarette,
another day,
from A to be,
again avoiding see, D, and E,
'cause E is where you play the blues.

Avoiding a death
is to win the game,
to avoid relegation,
the big E.

Drowning in the big swim,
rising to the surface
The smell of you
That's the lowdown
