

Take Me Now

David Peaston

No more darkness, no more pain
Now that I have learned to love again
Sweet surrender, love's been found
Take me now
All the feelings that were pushed aside
You touched me and they came alive
Magic moments lost are found
Take me now
Take me to the magic of your love
Take me to the places men dream of
Take me to the point where only love is found
Take me now
Take me now
In the madness of this cruel world
God has given me the perfect girl
Sweet surrender, love's been found
Take me now
All my dreams are found in you
You give me life and love so true
Magic moments lost are found
Take me now
Take me to the magic of your love
Take me to the places men dream of
Take me to the point where only love is found
Take me now
Take me now
I need you to comfort me
You keep me alive
I've been a prisoner in love
I lost to our world
No more darkness, and no more pain
Now that I have learned to love again
Sweet surrender, love's been found
Take me now
Take me to the magic of your love
Take me to the places men dream of
Take me to the point where only love can be found
Take me, take me to those places
Take me

Oooh oh oh oh oh oh ooh oh oh oh oh oh

Take me

Ooo ooo ooo oooo

Ooo ooo ooo, ooo, ooo ooo ooo ooo

Take me to the mystery of your love

Take me to the magic of your love

Take me to the places men dream of

Take me to the point where only love can be found

Take me
