Prekestolen

Magenta

Never again shall we feel lost
Walking a path of no return
Destiny bound one through no sound
Spirit guide us on our way, no fear
Move on

Standing at last to face the truth
A love that?s so pure, born out of youth
A feeling so strong it calls you on
Holding on to something true, your life
Live this life alone
Will break my heart
Watch you feel more pain
Will break my heart
Take the final step
Will heal my heart

No more sunlight
No more moonlight
To eternity

Feel the warmth
No sound
Silent leaves
Fall down
