

Children of Lusty Hell

BROOMSTICK WITCHES

we are children of lusty hell we are nightmares you cant dispel we live for lust before the dust
we live for lust before the dust we live in the windy shadows outside your bolted windows we wear haunting ghostly faces smoke our weed in secret places
we are children of lusty hell
we relish our evil pleasures in the darkest corners of night beyond all your legal borders
we are children of lusty hell
satans the king to whom we sing eternal songs of damnation for us theres no blest salvation
we are children of lusty hell
