Moon Under Water

Wave

Looking at you through the window
You're like a girl on the cover of style magazine
I try to be cool but you don't notice me there
I'm just another guy trying to get attention from you

Well, I'm in the dark on how to get to you
'Cause I can't touch the light that's why to me you're like

The moon underwater, you're pulling me under
An illusion that's always just out of my reach
Like chasing my shadow, I can't help but follow
I'll never catch up to you
You're just like the moon underwater

What do I do, here I am
I take the bus everyday making minimum wage
I must be deluding myself but I can't stop thinking
That someone like me could ever stand a chance

Well, I'm in the dark on how to get to you
'Cause I can't touch the light that's why to me you're like

The moon underwater, you're pulling me under
An illusion that's always just out of my reach
Like chasing my shadow, I can't help but follow
I'll never catch up to you
You're just like the moon underwater

I could drown in the thought of us together
And through I'm fooling myself
Baby, every time I see your face
It makes me crazy enough to lose time and space, yeah

The moon underwater, you're pulling me under
An illusion that's always just out of my reach
Like chasing my shadow, I can't help but follow
I'll never catch up to you
You're just like the moon underwater
